

THE REALITY OF CONSTRUCTION IN THE

What Non-Union Workers are Up Against:

WAGE THEFT, WORKER MISCLASSIFICATION, LABOR TRAFFICKING

- Unprotected carpenters and construction workers across the DMV are victims every single day of crimes against their dignity and safety.
- Wage Theft, Worker Misclassification, and Labor Trafficking are crimes that target vulnerable populations and abuse workers by stealing their wages and benefits. Workers often face retaliation if they speak out.
- Our community is stronger when ALL workers have a voice. Through union representation and collective bargaining, workers get the dignity they deserve and have earned.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

Due to severe lack of enforcement, wage theft and worker misclassification have become accepted business practices across the DMV. This must stop.

Reach out to local elected officials and school board members to voice your concerns about the abuse unprotected workers experience.

Contact your Attorney General and tell them it is time for government at all levels to take action to stop mistreatment of workers.

Construction Workers in the DMV Deserve Better.
